

May 2009 Mega Meeting "The 4 Disciplines of Execution"

Salt Lake County is proud to announce an exciting partnership with the State of Utah. This year our Mega Meetings will be a joint partnership with the State's Department of Human Resource Management. We will be merging County Mega Meetings with State Management Conferences in order to share costs and provide outstanding speakers for these events. Please read below for information on the upcoming May 6th Conference.

Sam Bracken of the Franklin Covey Institute will review "The 4 Disciplines of Execution"

Do your work teams focus on your organization's top priorities? Join us at this conference to learn how to give your team members the knowledge and tools they need to build execution capability.

Sam will explore how to:

- Distinguish important goals from the day-to-day tasks.
- Apply tools and processes that ensure alignment to the organization's most important goals.
- Become engaged around the right measures of success.
- Apply an accountability process for taking ownership of performance.

Visit Sam Bracken's website for more information.

Registration due by April 24th!

- Registration is required. Please complete the online registration form as soon as possible.
- This conference is FREE for County employees and is targeted to managers and team leaders.
- Be sure to present your County badge for free parking.
- Please note that breakfast will not be provided.

When: May 6, 2009
8:00 am - Noon
(Registration 7:00 - 8:00 am)

Where: Salt Palace Convention Center
Room 250
100 S. West Temple
Salt Lake City, UT

Reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals may be provided upon request. Please contact Cynthia Carrington at 801-468-2120 or CCarrington@slco.org. TTY users should call 711.

As always, be sure to obtain your supervisor's permission to attend this conference. To learn more about the Employees' University and our various education programs visit our website at www.slco.org/university.